FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Charles S. Frame, D.V.M., Respondent herein, of 4022 Bannon Road, Marshall, Wi 53559, whose date of birth is October 18, 1958, is currently licensed to practice veterinary medicine in the State of Wisconsin under license number 2654 which was granted on June 20, 1984.

2. An investigation, entitled 02 Vet 023 is pending before the Wisconsin Veterinary Examining Board.

3. On May 4, 2002, Respondent performed a physical examination on a three year old miniature daschound owned by Todd Traeder.

4. The dog had been a previous patient of Respondent and had no history of biting or other behavioral problems.

5. During the course of the physical examination, the dog became agitated, baring his teeth and growling. Respondent restrained the dog by grabbing the dog by the scruff of the neck and holding him on the table. The dog responded by urinating and yelping.

6. Upon releasing the dog, the Traeder dog bit Respondent on the hand.

7. Respondent grabbed the dog again by the scruff of the neck and held it over the floor at which time the dog urinated, defecated, and continued yelping. Respondent then dropped the dog onto the floor.

8. The owners noted and photographed bilateral abdominal bruising following the incident.

9. Respondent apologized to the owner, indicating that he should have recognized the need for a different type of restraint of the dog.

10. Respondent voluntarily participated in a meeting with the prosecuting attorney and the advisor assigned to this case for the purpose of discussing his conduct and reasoning in this matter.

11. Respondent has cooperated fully throughout this investigation and voluntarily agrees to a reeducational program in proper restraint techniques.
